OVERVIEW

Domus Academy and The Coca-Cola Company are proud to launch:

Entrepreneurship through Design

How experimental entrepreneurship can innovate through design concepts and methodologies

MASTER IN BUSINESS DESIGN - SEPTEMBER 2017 INTAKE

Candidates are asked to identify new business opportunities leveraging the current Coca-Cola brand values. The new business proposal will reach outside of the food and drink industry segments. Winning proposals will be visionary yet feasible, innovative yet implementable with today's technologies and current infrastructures.

The new venture could consist in a product, a service, an ecosystem, an experience, etc. It could be done as a co-branding or partnership with another brand. In that case, particular attention and sensibility will have to be paid to the strategic branding aspects in order not to dilute the image and reputation of the Coca-Cola brand. Candidates will clearly highlight the rationale of the new proposal and how it is building on the existing brand DNA and vision; the balance between creative and business aspects and finally the benefits for consumers, Coca-Cola and the potential partner.

MASTER PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Master in Business Design program creates new connections between the worlds of business and design. You'll work on projects relating to the business of design - and the design of business. Enlightening and interdisciplinary, the program focuses on how to apply design methodology, sensitivity, and culture to any business. You'll study design-driven company management as you learn to draft plans for business development, branding, marketing, and communication - for product lines, startups, and established businesses.

ELIGIBILITY

Candidates holding a first-level academic diploma or BA degree, or about to graduate within the academic year 2016/17 and with a knowledge of the English language (IELTS 5.0 academic or equivalent certificate minimum).
